

The K-LOVE station is the one and only station I listen too. I do not have to worry about rude or explicit comments on this station. It is a daily spiritual renewing for me. I cannot live without this station. It would be a total loss for this community if it were displaced by an LPFM broadcaster. This wonderful station provides uplifting messages and music this community cannot do without. Please allow K-LOVE to stay on the air!